The prestigious 40 Under 40 list, recognizing Goss's success in introducing new models and finding novel ways to source talent while bolstering revenue, debuts on SIA's website this week, and the list, along with the profiles of those recognized, also debuts in print in the September 2018 issue of Staffing Industry Review.

Paige launched Point Solutions Group in April 2017 to address the need and demand for diversity in information technology, engineering, and professional services in global government and commercial organizations, hitting $1.5 million in business by year-end. This year, it is on track to exceed $4 million with eight internal employees.

Goss explains that "Our vision has always been to create a world where every major project and team are tangibly diverse so that companies can achieve their missions faster, with more ease, profitability, and innovation. Every part of our culture and processes as a company is built around that vision, and I look forward to contributing to SIA's mission of elevating the workforce solutions ecosystem."

The 2018 list is sponsored by Sterling Talent Solutions. "The impact these rising stars have on the global talent marketplace is far-reaching. Their successes, creativity, determination and vision help fuel advancements and initiatives that enable thriving enterprise," said Lou Paglia, Chief Innovation Officer at Sterling Talent Solutions. "We congratulate this year's honorees on their many accomplishments and contributions."

Subadhra Sriram, Publisher and Editor, SIA, explained how leaders like Paige Goss make SIA's 40 Under 40 List, stating that they are "Compelled by a desire to improve the lives of people, they are shaping the world of work in unprecedented ways."

Paige Goss was honored among 40 influential individuals who come from varied and diverse backgrounds, making their mark through innovation, efficiencies, diligence and a passion for improving lives. The list is not a ranking but a recognition of talented professionals elevating the industry. A reception is planned to honor these talented leaders during SIA's upcoming Collaboration in the Gig Economy conference taking place October 4-5 2018 in Dallas.
